FIRES IN LIVERPOOL LAID TO SINN FEIN

Evidences of Incendiarism Found Around 12 Warehouses Burned

TWO KILLED AT SCENE

Attempt to Blow up Parliament House Reported Set For Today—Boy and Constable Killed

London, Nov. 29.—A dozen cotton warehouses in Liverpool were destroyed Saturday night by fire, said to have been set by Sinn Feiners. This is the first blow to be struck by the Irish Republicans on English soil as part of their plan of reprisal for the deeds of the Crown forces in Ireland.

One constable was shot dead in the confusion surrounding the fires. The Liverpool police have sent out a general alarm for the arrest of two Sinn Feiners who live in that city and who are believed to have some information regarding the origin of the fires.

The Government had been warned of the attack on the warehouses in documents captured in Ireland by the military and police in raids on Sinn Fein quarters.

A dispatch from Liverpool says: "An alarming outbreak of Sinn Fein violence occurred shortly before 9 o'clock last night. Fires broke out simultaneously both in the south and north ends of Liverpool and also in Bootle.

"There are seven fires in Bootle and 11 in various parts of Liverpool.

"Subsequent discoveries revealed a well planned Sinn Fein plot to spread a holocaust of fire among the warehouses in the dock area. The fires were spread over almost all of the whole seven miles of the dock area.

"Owing to the inflammable nature of the contents of the warehouses, the flames quickly gained a strong hold, and by 1 o'clock in the morning the whole sky was lit up. The local fire brigades were unable to cope with the situation and were obliged to call brigades from other suburbs. The police commandeered all telephone wires and took all steps to prevent farther outbreaks by concentrating policemen along the line of the docks.

"Three youths, watching the suspicious movements of two men at the cotton warehouse in Parliament street ,warned the police, who challenged the suspects. Thereupon the latter bolted and fired upon the police, who pursued them. The policemen were unhurt, but a bullet pierced the heart of a youth. Daniel Ward, who was among those who warned the police, and he fell dead.

"The fires, in some instances, were quickly quenched. Others, in stocked cotton warehouses, burned fiercely the night long. It was found that all the locks on the warehouses had been cut with bolt cutters. Many empty petrol cans were found on the scene. Each fire started at more than one place. At one timber yard there were three separate outbreaks."

"It appears that for each building marked for destruction there were allotted gangs numbering from four to five men, one of whom stood sentry while the other cut the locks and applied the inflammables.

"Many fires were suppressed in their early stages, and in these cases there was clear evidence of incendiarism in the finding of rags soaked in paraffin and empty petrol cans and bolt-cutters left behind. The most destructive fires were in two large cotton warehouses on either side of Jordan street, which were not extinguished until 7 o'clock this morning, when the buildings were completely destroyed.

"It is impossible to estimate the total damage, but it is known it will run into hundreds of thousands of pounds.

"The man who shot Daniel Ward escaped, but the police chased and captured his accomplice."

Many sensational reports of Sinn Fein plans are in circulation. The most important of these is that an attempt to blow up the Parliament buildings and attack officials of the government will be made today. It

SKIRTS TO BE SHORT AND STRAIGHT, SAY EXPERTS

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 29.—The semi-annual meeting of the National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' Association here yesterday was attended by more than 300 delegates, who discussed the new fashions for spring as displayed by living models at the style show Saturday afternoon

No very radical changes are shown from the lines of fall and winter garments. Skirts continue short and straight. The slender silhoutte predominates, and the youthful spirit was expressed in many garments shown.

"Individuality is the keynote of early spring apparel," said Philip Frankel, executive secretary of the association. "Every woman will have opportunity to express her own personality through selection of the variety of models offered by the manufacturers of 1921."

Swanson To Run

Virginia Senator Will Seek Re-Election

Washington, Nov. 29.—Senator Swanson, of Virginia, will be a candidate for re-election when his present term expires. He authorized this statement today when his attention was called to reports being printed in the State that he would withdraw from public life on account of ill-health.

The Senator states that the condition of his health will in no way interfere with his candidacy for re-election or impair his efficiency in discharging his duties as a Senator.

In this connection he stated that for the past several years he has been under very severe strain occasioned by added work in the Senate and illness in his family, which had badly overtaxed him. He left a sick bed against the advice of his physician, having a touch of influenza, and went to fill his engagements in the late campaign. His physician stated that because of the strain to which he had been subjected for a very long time he was not strong enough to speak. After speaking in Roanoke the Senator recognized the wisdom of this advice and canceled his remaining engagements, returning to Washington.

He now has been assured that there is nothing seriously wrong and that rest will soon restore him to complete health. The Senator has been resting since his return to Washington and is now rapidly regaining his strength.

Large Audience Hears F. I. Middleton, of Washington

The inclement weather favored the men's meeting at the Richmond Theater yesterday afternoon by assembling a splendid audience to hear Hon Frank I. Middleton, of Washington discuss "Recognition of God."

Mr. Middleton is a layman of the Presbyterian Church but many thought him a minister of splendid address, so remarkable was his talk to those present. Gypsy Smith or Billy Sunday could not have done more with an audience than he, and the men listened enchanted to his plea for a definite recognition of God by every man.

Especially touching was his recital of the life long friendship between himself and Mr. McElwee, who accompanied him to Alexandria and sang for the men. Mr. McElwee sang two solos accompanied by Sherman Fowler, and both were keenly appreciated.

W. E. Dunn lead the singing and N. S. Grenaway introduced the speaker. Dr. J. L. Allison, of the Second Presbyterian Church, led in prayer The Citizens' Band gave a short concert before the meeting.

BAKER SAYS WAR COST $13,730,300,500

Present Army an Effective Model For Emergency He Thinks

UNIVERSAL TRAINING

United States in Conflict One Out of Every Four Years He Asserts National Guard and Army

Washington, Nov. 29.—The post-war reorganization of the army marks a new era in the military history of the country, Secretary Baker declares in his annual report, made public today, as it provides an effective model on which great armies could be swiftly built in times of emergency.

Reviewing the military activities of the nation since 1776, Secretary Baker says that although the United States was "the most peace-loving of all nations" it had been engaged in major domestic or foreign wars about one out of every four years during that period and that the military power of the country had been in active use in war or military operations of some kind about three out of every four years.

"It is apparent, therefore, that while we do not need a great standing army we must live in the world as it is while we struggle to make it what it should be." Mr. Baker says. "We must have a body of trained men large enough in numbers to be an effective working model upon which great armies can be swiftly built in event of emergency.

"A justice-loving people may be forced by tragic necessity to resort to war, but it has no right to ask its sons to fight its battles out armed and out shielded by an adversary."

In studying the lessons of the World War the War Department had proceeded on the accepted theory that the infantry remained the backbone of the army, the report said, although the importance of other arms of the service had been greatly increased by the swift developments of war.

"Profound and fundamental changes in armament were introduced and many of the instrumentalities devised are apparently only at the beginning of their development," says the War Secretary. "The infantry itself is no longer the foot soldier armed with the musket, but the foot soldier with the long range, high-power repeating rifle, the automatic rifle and the machine gun, which, in some of its uses is analagous to light artillery. The advance of the infantry is no longer merely covered by protective artillery fire, but the path of the advance must be cleared of obstructions and its position, once attained, must be protected by artillery of great power and extreme mobility."

Mr. Baker makes no comment on universal military training, a plan rejected by Congress in enacting the new Army Reorganization bill, but in reviewing the provisions of the new military law, he says that one of the most important features of the legislation is the provision for a "constant and systematic relationship between the National Guard and the Regular Army."

This provision, Mr. Baker declares, will do much to "prevent antagonisms which have in the past been the not unnatural but nevertheless unhappy characteristic of the relationships of the two forces."

"The army is essentially a new army," Mr. Baker continues, "not merely another army than that which existed prior to the war, but new in its attitude toward the country and the country's attitude toward it. The extent to which a new era has dawned for the army is shown by recruiting. The difficulty in securing the necessary enlistments for our small pre-war army has in a large part disappeared, and although the stimulus of active operations has now entirely disappeared the total strength of the army November 3, 1920, was 218,067."

Mr. Baker declares that the one-year enlistment period authorized by Congress has not justified itself and asserts that "from the point of view of the efficiency of the army one year enlistment periods are of little value."

CHRISTIANITY AND THE LEAGUE

During the Presidential campaign there never was any doubt that a great moral issue was involved, or that the Democrats were on the side of world peace and morality. The Republicans did not deny it. With brutal frankness they declared that they did not care about these things. They adopted the question of Cain, "Am I my brother's keeper" as their campaign slogan. They voted against the League of Nations because if we joined it we might have to act with other nations in preventing a war, and they would rather have a war come than help to prevent it. They did not believe the war would come here, and they did not care whether there were war or not elsewhere.

Well, it did not look in 1914 as if the world war could possibly touch us, but it did; so the Republican attitude was as foolish as it was immoral. The peace treaty and the League of Nations were never urged by their supporters on the ground that it was our business to take care of the rest of the world, but on the ground that it was wise as well as humane for us to join the civilized nations in preventing a war because any world war was likely to involve us.

There are Republicans who are amenable to moral considerations—when a Presidential election is not on. Their consciences cannot be entirely easy, and they will be less easy as time passes and the Presidential campaign recedes into the past. We invite them to consider the declaration of the World Alliance for International Friendship Through the Churches. This body of religious men from 23 nations was formed in 1914, and attempted to have a convention, but its first meeting was cut short by the outbreak of the world war. It has just held a convention in Switzerland, and it adopted a message to all Christian people urgin gthem "to use their influence to make the League of Nations a great moral power." The address says:

We believe that the alternative to the League can be nothing else than a crushing increase in competitive armament in all nations, and desperate preparation for a war more deadly and destructive than anything the world has seen.

The world's armaments are now larger than they were before 1914, although Germany and Austria-Hungary have been disarmed. The small nations would feel safer if the big nations would reduce their armaments, and they beg them to do this, but the large nations reply that it is too soon ;disarmament cannot come yet.

And we need not search long for the reason for this. The United States is not a member of the League, and its army and navy are far larger than they were before the war. We must have a big army and navy if we are to stand outside the League, and if the greatest nation in the world increases its armament the other large nations do not feel safe in reducing theirs.

Thanks to the Republican party we are blocking the reduction of armaments and are keeping the world an armed camp, with the certainty of future wars. The present League can do much to avert war, but without us its power for good must be greatly limited. The representative religious men of 23 nations plead for the strengthening of the League, but the Republicans have just voted that the rest of the world may go hang; we can take care of ourselves.

EMPLOYEES GIVEN VOICE

Three Workers Serve on Cincinnati Company's Board of Directors

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.— H. H.French vice president of the Procter & Gamble Co., in speaking of the plan of the company of having its 5000 employees represented on the board of directors by three of their number, said it is still in the experimental stage, but evidences a tendency to bring the minds of the employees closer to the management. He stated the innovation has now entered on its second year, is full of promise and that it is a helpful step in the right direction.

The employees of the three plants of the company at Ivorydale (Cincinnati), Port Ivory (New York) and Kansas City each elected their own representative and recommended him to the stockholders, who elected three as directors.

W. G. Rous, a machinist at the Ivorydale plant for many years, was elected to succeed Fred W. Steingrube on the board for the coming year. Frank M. Sells, a pipefitter at the Kansas City plant since 1903, was re-elected and Cornelius Mills, of three years a bricklayer at Port Ivory, was chosen to succeed Carl H. Kinke, who represented Port Ivory employees.

They come to Cincinnati on the third Tuesday of each month to attend the meeting of the board, in which they have full voting power, the same as the other directors.

Three Thugs Shoot Boy To Rob Him of 60 Cents

Chicago, Nov. 29.—Human life is the cheapest commodity in Chicago, William Kilburg, aged 17, had attended a motion picture show and was whistling merrily as he took a short cut through a vacant lot to reach his home a few blocks distant. As he walked and whistled, he jingled 60 cents in his pockets.

Three men armed with revolvers suddenly sprang upon him. One struck him, knocking him down. As he arose another fired a shot that entered just below the boy's heart. They then took his 60 cents and fled. Neighbors attracted by the pistol shots, carried the boy home and he was rushed to the nearest hospital. A number of suspects, corner loafers and gangsters, were arrested on suspicion, but the boy is too near death to identify his assailants.

The society has been searching for a combination navigator, engineer and minister for two years to take the post, the announcement said. Illinois Man Gaines 30 Pounds

Enjoys Good Health For First Time in Twenty-Five Years—Praises Tanlac

"Since I started taking Tanlac I have not only gained thirty pounds in weight, but for the first time in twenty-five years I am enjoying good health," said J. J.Craig, of 421 North Madison street, Bloomington, Ill., recently.

"Yes, sir, I am fifty years of age," he continued, 'and twenty-five of these years have been spent in misery and suffering without a let-up until I began taking Tanlac. I was never able to eat a thing without filling up with gas afterwards and having such intense cramping pains in my stomach I could hardly stand them. Why ,at times I would have these spells of cramps while at work and have to be taken home, where I would lie for hours almost unconscious. I was all run down and weak, and would play out before I had worked half a day, and very often had to quit and go home. But, thanks to Tanlac, this is all a thing of the past, now.

"Tanlac has simply made a new man of me, and it has given me good health, something I never expected to have again. I can sit down, now, and eat anything without its hurting me the least bit. I am never troubled with gas and never have the least sign of a pain in my stomach. I feel strong and vigorous all the time, and am able to work every day and all day long with the greatest ease. No, sir, I wouldn't take all the money in Bloomington for what Tanlac has done for me, and I expect to praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, jr., and Gibson's Drug Store.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 29.—The American steamship Hillsborough County within the next few days will start on her belated journey to Havana, Cuba. Free Your Blood From Poison

Take Pepto-Mangan, the Famous Blood Tonic Prescribed by Physicians for 30 Years

Sluggish blood clogged with poisons makes you lazy. You never feel like getting up in the morning. And when you do get up, you miss that feeling of refreshing rest. You feel more tired than when you went to bed. After a good night's sleep you should get up with a spring, feeling alive, renewed, refreshed.

And you would, too, if your blood were full of red corpuscles. Your complexion would look fresh, your eyes bright and clear; you would feel the warm tingle of good health.

Look to your blood if you have that lazy, heavy feeling in the morning. Begin taking Pepto-Mangan—the ideal tonic. It has blood-building properties that pick you up and give you strength.

Pepto-Mangan is widely and heartily endorsed by physicians. It is effective and easy to take. It is prepared in both liquid and tablet form. Both have the same medicinal properties.

Sold at any drug store. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's". Ask for it by the full name and be sure the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package. —Adv.

Soldiers Arrive at Mine Town;

Place Looks Like Armed Camp

Williamson, W. Va., Nov. 29.—A provisional battalion of approximately 500 men of the United States Army camp at Chillicothe, Ohio, arrived here today at noon. Col. Herman Hall, commanding, immediately took up his headquarters at the county Courthouse and armed guards were thrown out around the building.

The troops are here in response to a request of Gov. John J. Cornwell to put an end to disorders of the past few weeks. Since their arrival the town has taken on the appearance of a military camp. The streets are filled with army mules, trucks and other paraphernalia. Officers will be billeted in the Courthouse and the enlisted men are being quartered in the City Hall and an old hotel. Detachments of soldiers have already been sent to Kermit, Borderland and Matewan for guard duty. No disorders have been reported since the arrival of the troops.

Counterfeiters Caught Red-Handed in Cincinnati

Cincinnati, Nov. 29.—Following information given by a woman, three policemen entered a room here yesterday and arrested two men who were drying the ink on more than $3,000 worth of $10 banknotes, which had been printed from copper plates.

The counterfeiting outfit was seized and police say it is one of the most complete which has ever been found in Cincinnati. The prisoners were registered as Martin Hamman, 47, Cincinnati, and Charles Schwitbe, 25 years old, Vincennes, Ind.

Nine of the banknotes had been completed and the paper was still wet when the officers entered the room. The men evidently had made many experiments, for several $10 notes which Hamman said were "too thick" were scattered on the table.

Police say Hamman was sentenced to serve five years in the Federal Prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, after he had been convicted of counterfeiting in Oklahoma.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 29.—John Marshall Athletic Club Saturday afternoon demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt that it has one of the fastest independent football teams ever assembled in this city when the local eleven defeated the Dreadnaught Athletic Club team by the score of 20 to 0, at Boulevard Field. The Marshallites uncorked a brand of football seldom seen here and ran rough shod over its apponents from Alexandria.

While the showing made by the Dreadnaughts was in a measure responsible for their defeat the game put up by the Richmond team was the best they have played this year and it could not be stopped. In former games the local eleven has resorted to the open style of play to a certain extent, but yesterday they "opened up" and by bringing into the game several new plays were able to outclass their opponents.

Materially strengthened by the acquisition of several players and the shifting of others no doubt was responsible for the game put up by the locals. Goff, coach of the Randolph-Macon football team this year, was at one of the half-back positions and his ability to hurl swift low passes was in a large measure responsible for many of the gains made by his team. Participating in a football game for the first time in several years the work of Goff is even more remarkable.

John Marshall began the scoring early in the game, and before the first quarter had progressed five minutes had scored seven points by registering a touchdown after the finest playing of the day. Carpenter hurled Stringer, Goff, Christian and himself at the opposing line, and by straight football advanced the ball to the Dreadnaughts' twenty-yard line.

It was at this point that the home team opened up, and for the first time this season executed its fake play from a placement-kick formation Stringer and Carpenter dropped back as if to make the kick, but "Lew" received the ball and hurled it to McConkey, who had crossed the Dreadnaughts' line, Brown kicked the goal.

Inability of the Dreadnaught backfield to hold the oval resulted in the second touchdown of the Marshallites, which also came in the first quarter. The visitors received the kick after the touchdown, but lost the oval when they fumbled on their twenty-two-yard line. McConkey recovering for the Marshallites. Here Carpenter opened up his offense again, and by tackle, round plays and fine plunges advanced the ball to the Dreadnaughts' five yard line. L. Wilson went over for a touchdown on a tackle round play.

Neither side scored in the second and third quarters of the game, but the Marshallites annexed another touchdown in the final period by repeating the play used in the first quarter.

The report reviews at length the new educational and recreational program established since the war and declares that "the time will come soon when the peace-time army will be throughout an educational institution, from which men will graduate better equipped to enter civilian pursuits and with a larger and firmer grasp on citizenship and its responsibilities and privileges."

The total cost of the war through the War Department is placed by the Secretary at about $13,730,300,500, and it is stated that in the liquidation of claims and contracts the department saved the Government 87 per cent of the outstanding obligations at the end of the war.

Discussing the disposal of surplus war stocks, Secretary Baker recommends that in the future the department's plans keep in mind an effort to have on hand at the termination of a war supplies of a character, so far as consistent with army needs, that could readily and quickly be absorbed into the country's commerce.

Declaring that he is happy to leave to his successors in the War Department the assurance that "in any national emergency they have but to use and direct the limitless capacity and willingness of the American people which spontaneously offers itself when a crisis comes," Mr. Baker concludes his report with a tribute to the navy and civilian war organizations for co-operation during and after the war, and declares that:

"In equipment, personnel and spirit, the army of the United States today is an object of just pride to the country."

TWO DEAD. 15 INJURED WHEN CAR RUNS WILD

Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 29.—Two were killed and 15 seriously injured early yesterday morning when a Lehigh Valley Transit limited car bound from Nazareth to this city sped down a steep hill, jumped the tracks, tore across a concrete highway and then dashed over a four-foot embankment.

The car overturned when it landed in a corn field near the Nazareth fair grounds. The company officials say the accident was due to locking of air brakes and slippery rails. Coroner W. J. Cathrall, of this city, is not convinced of this and is making an investigation.

The two men who were killed are Elmer Eckhart, aged 20, and Owen Hugh Jones, aged 31, both of this city.

COUNTRY HOME BURNED; LOSS SET AT $30,000

Gordonsville, Va., Nov. 29.—Happy Creek, the country home of Major and Mrs. Allen Potts, of Richmond, was totally destroyed by fire late Friday afternoon.

Many trophies won by Major and Mrs. Potts in various events were lost. The cause of the fire has not been determined. Loss is estimated at $30,000.

IRON PLANT BURNED WITH $35,000 LOSS

Portsmouth, Va., Nov. 29.—Fire early Friday evening destroyed the main building at the plant of the Portsmouth Metal and Foundry Company, Westhaven.

The plant employed about seevnty-five men. The fire is believed to have originated in a furnace. Loss is estimated at $35,000.

KUKLUX TO SEEK MEMBERS IN NORTH

Atlanta, Nov. 29.—W. J. Simmons, of Atlanta, imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, a fraternal organization bearing the name and with the emblems and insignia of the old Ku Klux Klan of of reconstruction days in the South, last night said the Klan is considering formation of branches in cities of the North and East. Simmons said no definite dates could be given for extension of the Klans beyond the bounds of the South, but declared definite plans will be arranged at the earliest possible time.

The Klan, with its white shrouded and masked riders and horses, is not limited to the South by any obligations of membership, the imperial wizard said.

DRIVE AWAY HEADACHE

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

MUSTEROLE
WILL NOT BLISTER

BE PREPARED

For three generations mothers have successfully used Foley's Honey and Tar as a safe remedy for the relief of cold, cough, croup and whooping cough. It is pure, wholesome, and children like it. Contains no opiates. Especially good for croup and whooping cough—the two terrors of childhood.

Mrs. W. H. Thornton, Little Rock, Ark., writes this: "My little boy had a severe attack of croup, but two doses of Foley's Honey and Tar relieved him, and he went back to sleep and was troubled no more. I would not be without it at any price."

is impossible to judge of their truth, but it was evident today that either the officials of the Irish office have good reason to fear that the Sinn Fein intends to bring its warfare to England or they are more alarmed than the general public is over the threats that have been published.

The Government precautionary measures in and around Downing street, the barricades and extra guards, seemed to have aroused the curiosity of Londoners rather than to have filled them with fear. Although yesterday was rainy, a big Sunday crowd inspected the barricades and wandered around the Government buildings just as a similar throng probably did about 40 years ago at the time of the Fenian explosions at Scotland Yard.

Begin Right Now to Conquer Your Rheumatism

If you are going to again rely upon the liniment bottle to try to rub your Rheumatism away, you will be doomed again to nothing but disappointment. A disease that can cause so much pain and suffering is not on the surface of the skin, and cannot be rubbed away.

Many forms of Rheumatism are caused by a tiny disease germ in the blood, and in such cases the only logical treatment is to search out and remove these germs from the blood.

For this purpose there is no more satisfactory remedy than S.S.S., the fine old blood remedy that has been in use for more than fifty years, and has given such general satisfaction for Rheumatism.

Begin taking S.S.S. today, and if you will write a complete history of your case, our medical director will give you expert advice, without charge. Address Chief Medical Director, 160 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.
